The Michaliades family would like to extend their sincere gratitude to everyone for the love and support they have shown during this difficult period in our lives.

Everyone's words of comfort and kindness has helped us as a family get through this very tragic event and use this day to celebrate Chris's life.

"What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived - the things God has prepared for those who love him." - 1 Corinthians 2:9
